

Miracles...

What are they?

What miracles did Jesus do and why did he perform so many of them?

What can we learn about Jesus and about God the Father by looking closely at the miracles recorded in the New Testament?

In the person of Jesus of Nazareth, God, the Word, “became flesh and made his dwelling among us” (John 1:14). The people of his day could observe who he was and what he did as they followed him from day to day. They saw his perfect, sinless life, and through his deeds, they also saw the glory, majesty, power and authority of God. And they saw his great love, his compassion for all people, especially those who were considered outcasts by society.

Jesus displayed God to us.

In John 14, he said this to his disciples:

“Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father... Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me;”

Then he added this:

“or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves.” (John 14:9&11)

The studies in this book are presented so that you may come to know Jesus the Messiah and God the Father in a deeper way. As you do this, you will grow to have greater faith and confidence in his greatness and in his goodness toward you.

To the only God our Savior be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and forevermore! Amen. (Jude 25)
